2. Right of First Refusal

2.1 Notice of Proposed Transfer

Before any Stockholder (the "Transferring Stockholder") may Transfer any Shares to any third party, the Transferring Stockholder shall first deliver written notice (the "Transfer Notice") to the Company and each other Stockholder, specifying:

(a) The number of Shares proposed to be Transferred;

(b) The identity of the proposed transferee;

(c) The proposed purchase price and all other material terms and conditions of the proposed Transfer; and

(d) A copy of the bona fide written offer from the proposed transferee, if any.

2.2 Class A Common Stock — Founders' Agreement ROFR Controls

With respect to transfers of Class A Common Stock of TMS, the right of first refusal provisions set forth in Section 2.5 of the Founders' Agreement shall govern. In the event of any conflict between this Section 2 and Section 2.5 of the Founders' Agreement with respect to Class A Common Stock, the Founders' Agreement shall control.

2.3 Other Classes — Stockholder Right of First Refusal

With respect to transfers of shares other than Class A Common Stock (including Class B Common Stock and Class C Common Stock, if any), the following ROFR mechanism shall apply:

(a) Stockholder Priority. Each remaining Stockholder shall have the right, exercisable by written notice to the Transferring Stockholder within thirty (30) days after receipt of the Transfer Notice, to purchase all (but not less than all) of the Shares subject to the Transfer Notice at the same price and on the same terms as set forth in the Transfer Notice. If more than one remaining Stockholder elects to purchase, the Shares shall be allocated pro rata based on each electing Stockholder's proportionate ownership of the outstanding Shares (excluding the Shares held by the Transferring Stockholder). The remaining Stockholders' right shall have priority over the Company's right under Section 2.4.

(b) If both a remaining Stockholder and the Company elect to purchase, the remaining Stockholder shall purchase the Shares.

2.4 Company Right of First Refusal

If no remaining Stockholder exercises its right under Section 2.3 within the thirty (30) day period, the Company shall have the right, exercisable by written notice to the Transferring Stockholder within the same thirty (30) day period (running concurrently with the Stockholder exercise period), to purchase all (but not less than all) of the Shares subject to the Transfer Notice at the same price and on the same terms as set forth in the Transfer Notice.

2.5 Completion of Transfer

If neither any remaining Stockholder nor the Company exercises its right of first refusal in full, the Transferring Stockholder may, within sixty (60) days following the expiration of the exercise period, Transfer the Shares to the proposed transferee at a price not less than, and on terms no more favorable to the transferee than, those set forth in the Transfer Notice. If the transfer is not completed within such sixty (60) day period, the Transferring Stockholder must again comply with this Section 2 before transferring the Shares.

2.6 Exceptions

The right of first refusal provisions of this Section 2 shall not apply to:

(a) Transfers to a trust established by a Stockholder for estate planning purposes, provided that (i) the Stockholder obtains the prior written consent of the other Stockholder(s) and the Company (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld), and (ii) the trust agrees in writing to be bound by all terms of this Agreement; or

3.1 Tag-Along Notice

If a Stockholder (the "Selling Stockholder") receives a bona fide offer from a third party to purchase any or all of the Selling Stockholder's Shares, and the Selling Stockholder desires to accept such offer, the Selling Stockholder shall deliver written notice (the "Tag-Along Notice") to each other Stockholder (each, a "Tag-Along Stockholder") at least thirty (30) days prior to the proposed closing of such sale. The Tag-Along Notice shall include the material terms and conditions of the proposed sale, including the identity of the proposed purchaser, the number of Shares to be sold, the price per Share, and the expected closing date.

3.2 Exercise of Tag-Along Rights

Each Tag-Along Stockholder shall have the right, exercisable by written notice to the Selling Stockholder within twenty (20) days of receipt of the Tag-Along Notice, to participate in the proposed sale on the same terms and conditions as the Selling Stockholder, pro rata based on each participating Stockholder's proportionate ownership of the outstanding Shares.

3.3 Reduction

If the proposed purchaser is unwilling to purchase all of the Shares offered by the Selling Stockholder and the Tag-Along Stockholders, the number of Shares to be sold by each participating Stockholder shall be reduced pro rata based on each such Stockholder's proportionate ownership of the outstanding Shares.

4. Drag-Along Rights

4.1 Drag-Along Obligation

If holders of more than fifty percent (50%) of the outstanding Class A Common Stock approve a Change of Control transaction (the "Approved Sale"), all other holders of Class A Common Stock, Class B Common Stock, and Class C Common Stock (if any) shall be required to participate in such Approved Sale on the same terms and conditions, including selling or exchanging their Shares at the same price per share (adjusted for class-specific economic rights, if applicable).

4.2 Bona Fide Arm's Length Transaction

The drag-along rights under this Section 4 may only be exercised in connection with a bona fide arm's length transaction with a third party that is not an affiliate of any Stockholder.

4.3 Equal Treatment

In any Approved Sale, all Stockholders shall receive consideration on a per-share basis identically, such that each share of the same class receives the same per-share consideration. Any stockholder subject to the drag-along obligation shall receive the same price per share and the same protections (including representations, warranties, indemnification caps, and escrow terms) as the stockholders who approved the transaction.

4.4 Cooperation

Each Stockholder shall take all actions reasonably requested in connection with the consummation of an Approved Sale, including executing any purchase agreements, merger agreements, or other documents, and making any representations and warranties, as may be reasonably required.

In any Change of Control transaction, the acquisition carve-out provisions of Section 2.8 of the Founders' Agreement shall apply. Without limiting the foregoing, no less than ten percent (10%) of the aggregate consideration payable to stockholders in any Change of Control transaction shall be allocated to holders of vested Class B Common Stock (and vested options exercisable for Class B Common Stock) on a pro rata basis according to their respective holdings, prior to the application of any liquidation preference, participation right, or other priority payment owed to holders of Preferred Stock. Subject to such floor allocation, shares of Class B Common Stock shall be treated on a per-share basis identically to shares of Class A Common Stock, with Class B holders receiving the same per-share consideration as Class A holders, less the applicable exercise price (if any). In the event of any conflict between this Section 4.5 and Section 2.8 of the Founders' Agreement, the Founders' Agreement shall govern.
